FORT COLLINS, Colorado, USA

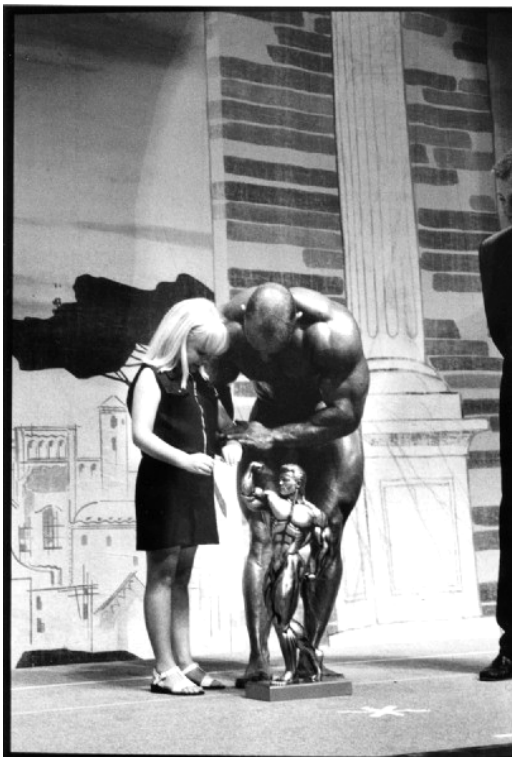

The Center for Fine Art Photography presents Interactions. The latest photographic exhibit at the Center will open May 4 and run through May 30, 2007. The Artists' and public reception is planned for Friday, May 4, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk. Visitors to the reception will have the opportunity to meet and talk with several of the artists.

The Juror for Interactions is Alison D. Nordstrom, the Curator of Photographs at the George Eastman House in Rochester, NY. The works of fifty photographers from the United States, Spain, Canada, Germany, Great Britain and China were selected for this exhibit. The theme for this exhibition was to show people interacting with or to each other.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art. The Center is located on the 3rd floor of the Fort Collins Museum of Contemporary Art, 201 S. College Ave., Fort Collins, CO, 80524. Phone 970.224.1010. Gallery hours are 12-5pm Tuesday through Saturday. www.c4fap.org.
