Acceptance Notification

Everyone who submits will be notified of the acceptance posting on the Center's website. There, the accepted images and artists name will be posted along with instructions for the gallery presentation.

Exhibit Prints (This applies to accepted work – not submissions for jurying)

The Center strives for uniform framing as the image is the artist's work, not the framing. Uniform framing is less distracting to visitors when compared to an exhibition with many different colored mats and framing styles.

At the same time, the Center recognizes that some work (avant-garde, mixed media and experimental work, for example) incorporates the "framing" as an integral part of the presentation. If this applies to your work, please contact the Center.

Otherwise, the Center will require that traditionally framed work adhere to the following:

- Minimum frame height / width dimension of 16 inches with the other dimension proportional
- Minimum image height / width dimension of 11 inches with the other dimension proportional
- A black wood or metal professional-quality frame with a minimum 1" wide border will be required
- White mats, single, double or triple (off white is not acceptable)
- External frame dimensions may not exceed 40 inches / 100 cm in width without first checking with the Center.

Framing accepted work

To encourage participation by photographers from around the world, the Center offers optional economical printing and framing services. Additional details will be provided to accepted artists.

Sales

Images that include recognizable faces will require a model release to be eligible for sale. All other work will be eligible for sale. Artists will state the retail sale price of their works. The Center retains a 40% commission.

Use Rights

By submission for jurying, artists whose submissions are chosen for the exhibition grant The Center for Fine Art Photography the right to use their images for the purpose of marketing the exhibition, marketing the Center's programs and subsequent display on the Center's website of past exhibitions. Artists grant the use of their image(s) as stated without further contact or compensation from the Center. Artist's recognition is provided with any use.
