Our Environment, the Good, Bad and the Ugly

Deadline August 18, 2008

Crossings at Monroe, Monroe, NJ, 2006
Justin Reed

Theme: Our Environment; the Good, Bad and the Ugly, will tell a story of the human foot print left on this earth. This exhibition is for those who consider themselves nature conservationists and just photographers with a conscience. It's time to go green.

Eligibility: The exhibition is open to all domestic and international, professional and amateur, photographers working with digital or traditional photography or combinations of both. The Center for Fine Art Photography invites photographers working in all mediums, styles and schools of thought to participate in its exhibitions. Traditional, contemporary, avant-garde, creative and experimental and mixed techniques are welcome.

Juror: Robert Glenn Ketchum – For 40 years, Robert Glenn Ketchum's photography and writing have focused public attention on complex issues of environmental politics, while at the same time helping to define contemporary color photography. He is a fellow of the International League of Conservation Photographers and has received many awards including the United Nations Outstanding Environmental Achieve Award and the Ansel Adams Award for Conservation Photography. Submitting Entries for Jurying

Entries are submitted via the Center's on-line system. Click on Call for Entries on the homepage to begin the process.

>> Note: images accepted by The Center for Fine Art Photography for exhibition in the previous 12 months are NOT eligible. Images previously submitted but not accepted for exhibition may be resubmitted as often as you wish. <<

- The entry fee for non-members is $35 USD for the first three images.
- The entry fee for members of The Center for Fine Art Photography is $20.00 USD for 3 images.
- Additional images may be submitted for $10 each. There is no limit to the number of images that may be submitted.
- Applicants signing up for membership at the time they submit their work for jurying may become a member and meet the entry fee for a total of $77.00 USD. Membership includes eligibility to sell work on Artists' ShowCase Online and inclusion of their images on the Member' Gallery with a link to their own website, and other benefits listed on the Center's website.

Preparing Images to Upload Online: Please follow these requirements when preparing your images for submission:

- Your images are viewed as RGB images using standard Adobe RGB 98 or sRGB profile.
NOTE: CMYK files will not upload.
- The largest image dimension (width or height) should be 800 pixels with the other dimension proportional.
- Save your images with a resolution 72 ppi, any layers flattened, 8 bit JPEG files (16 bit files will not upload.)
- Use JPG compression quality of 8. This compression level will not affect the quality of images viewed on a monitor.
- The image title can not be greater than 40 characters. (Image title is not the image file name)
- Image file names can not include any of the following characters or have more than 25 characters. Please do not include #,$,&, periods or other similar characters as part of the file name.
- There can only be a single period – just prior to the file format extension: filename.jpg

Acceptance Notification

Everyone who submits will be notified of the acceptance posting on the Center's website. There, the accepted images and artists name will be posted along with instructions for the gallery presentation.

Exhibit Prints (This applies to accepted work – not submissions for jurying)

The Center strives for uniform framing as the image is the artist's work, not the framing. Uniform framing is less distracting to visitors when compared to an exhibition with many different colored mats and framing styles.

At the same time, the Center recognizes that some work (avant-garde, mixed media and experimental work, for example) incorporates the "framing" as an integral part of the presentation. If this applies to your work, please contact the Center.

Otherwise, the Center will require that traditionally framed work adhere to the following:

- Minimum frame height / width dimension of 16 inches with the other dimension proportional
- Minimum image height / width dimension of 11 inches with the other dimension proportional
- A black wood or black metal professional-quality frame with a minimum 1" wide border will be required
- White mats, single, double or triple (off white is not acceptable)
- External frame dimensions may not exceed 40 inches / 100 cm in width without first checking with the Center.

Framing accepted work

To encourage participation by photographers from around the world, the Center offers optional economical printing and framing services. Additional details will be provided to accepted artists.

Sales

All other work will be eligible for sale. Artists will state the retail sale price of their works. The Center retains a 40% commission.

Use Rights

By submission for jurying, artists whose submissions are chosen for the exhibition grant The Center for Fine Art Photography the right to use their images for the purpose of marketing the exhibition, marketing the Center's programs and subsequent display on the Center's website of past exhibitions. Artists grant the use of their image(s) as stated without further contact or compensation from the Center. Artist's recognition is provided with any use.
