The Human Canvas

Deadline January 13, 2009

Theme: The human body is not just the vessel in which our consciousness resides, but also a canvas and a sculpting medium that is used to inspire, provoke, and sometimes offend. The Human Canvas seeks to explore the many ways in which the body can be an integral component of art. It can be as simple and elegant as the unadorned figure, or any of the almost limitless uses of the body as a canvas on which art is presented, or incorporated, from creations in fabric and textiles, body modifications, pigments, and much more.

Eligibility: The exhibition is open to all domestic and international, professional and amateur photographers working with digital or traditional photography or combinations of both. The Center for Fine Art Photography invites photographers working in all mediums, styles and schools of thought to participate in its exhibitions. Traditional, contemporary, avant-garde, creative and experimental and mixed techniques are welcome.

Juror: Suzette Troche-Stapp, a.k.a “the glitterguru” is one of the most sought-after photographer/digital artists today. Not only is Suzette is an award winning photographer but also the author of the book, “the glitterguru on Photoshop – From Concept to Cool”, which won the Designers Bookshelf Award for “Most Exciting New Photoshop Book of 2003”. Suzette is recognized as one of the “Top 40 Photoshop Experts” by Wacom Inc. and has been awarded the “Guru Award” for excellence in Photoshop design by NAPP.

Acceptance Notification

Everyone who submits will be notified of the acceptance posting on the Center's website. There, the accepted images and artists name will be posted along with instructions for the gallery presentation.

Exhibit Prints (This applies to accepted work – not submissions for jurying)

The Center strives for uniform framing as the image is the artist's work, not the framing. Uniform framing is less distracting to visitors when compared to an exhibition with many different colored mats and framing styles.

At the same time, the Center recognizes that some work (avant-garde, mixed media and experimental work, for example) incorporates the "framing" as an integral part of the presentation. If this applies to your work, please contact the Center.

Otherwise, the Center will require that traditionally framed work adhere to the following:

- Minimum frame height / width dimension of 16 inches with the other dimension proportional
- Minimum image height / width dimension of 11 inches with the other dimension proportional
- A black wood or black metal professional-quality frame with a minimum 1" wide border will be required
- White mats, single, double or triple (off white is not acceptable)
- External frame dimensions may not exceed 40 inches / 100 cm in width without first checking with the Center.

Framing accepted work

To encourage participation by photographers from around the world, the Center offers optional economical printing and framing services. Additional details will be provided to accepted artists.

*If your image does not fall within these requirements please contact the Center for permission to print or mat outside these requirement.

Sales

All work will be eligible for sale. Artists will state the retail sale price of their works. The Center retains a 40% commission.

Use Rights

By submission for jurying, artists whose submissions are chosen for the exhibition grant The Center for Fine Art Photography the right to use their images for the purpose of marketing the exhibition, marketing the Center's programs and subsequent display on the Center's website of past exhibitions. Artists grant the use of their image(s) as stated without further contact or compensation from the Center. Artist's recognition is provided with any use.
