Acceptance Notification

A list of accepted artists will be posted on the Center's web site. Also, artists with accepted entries will be notified by e-mail and receive shipping instructions at that time.

Framing accepted work

To encourage participation, the Center offers an optional economical framing service. Accepted artists may send their exhibited work in a suitable mailing tube for framing by the Center. Some photographers may find the cost of shipping artwork plus local framing by the Center is generally less expensive than shipping framed artwork.

Sales

All work should be for sale. Artists will state the retail sale price of their work. The Center encourages sales during the exhibition and retains a 40% commission on all work sold.

Exhibition opportunities

- All selected works will be exhibited in the Center's two galleries.
- All work will also be displayed in the Center's online edition of Artists' ShowCase (approx. 3,400 visitors / month).

Exhibition Prints (This applies to work after it is accepted – not to submissions for jurying)

The Center strives for uniform framing as the image is the artist's work, not the framing. Uniform framing is less distracting to visitors when compared to an exhibition with many different colored mats and framing styles.

At the same time, the Center recognizes that some work (avant-garde, mixed media and experimental work, for example) incorporates the "framing" as an integral part of the presentation. If this applies to your work, please contact the Center.

Otherwise, the Center will require that traditionally framed work adhere to the following:

- Minimum frame height / width dimension of 16 inches with the other dimension proportional
- Minimum image height / width dimension of 11 inches with the other dimension proportional
- A black wood or metal professional-quality frame with a minimum 1" wide frame border (width) will be required
- Bright white mats, single, double or triple (off white is not acceptable)
- External frame dimensions may not exceed 40 inches / 100 cm in width without first checking with the Center.

Use Rights

By submission for jurying, artists whose submissions are chosen for the exhibition grant The Center for Fine Art Photography the right to use their images for the purpose of marketing the exhibition, marketing the Center's programs and subsequent display on the Center's website of past exhibitions. Artists grant the use of their image(s) as stated without further contact or compensation from the Center. Artist's recognition is provided with use.
