The Center for Fine Art Photography presents its newest exhibition of fine art photography, The 2008 International Exhibition of Fine Art Photography. This exhibition is on display in the Center's gallery from October 3 – November 1, 2008.

The 2008 International Exhibition of Fine Art Photography features images seen and created around the world. The skillfully created artwork in this exhibition showcases the creativity and diversity of photographers from around the world. The Juror for this exhibition is Hossein Farmani. Farmani is the founder of the Lucie Awards, gallery owner, photographer, and has continuously proven to be passionate about photography while being instrumental in providing countless opportunities for photographers.

Photographers representing Canada, France, Great Britain, India, Ireland, Italy, Korea and the United States will be exhibiting their work in the Center's gallery. The artists' and public reception will be held from 6-9 pm on Friday October 3, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the art of photography, showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers, and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art. Enjoy fine art and a cup of coffee at the f/Stop Café in the Center's new location adjacent to the Poudre River Arts Center, at 400 North College Avenue, Fort Collins, CO. Gallery hours are 10am-5pm Tuesday through Saturday. f/Stop Café hours are 7:00am-3:00pm Monday through Friday. For more information about the Center's activities, including information on workshops or forums, please see the website at www.c4fap.org or call 970-224-1010.
