The Center for Fine Art Photography presents its newest exhibition of fine art photography, The Artful Nude. This exhibition is on display in the Center's gallery from July 11 – August 9, 2008. The Artful Nude showcases diverse imagery illustrating the human form. The works of forty-eight photographers representing, Canada, Denmark, Japan, Poland, Singapore, United Kingdom and the United States are in the exhibition. The artists' and public reception will be held from 6-9 pm on Friday August 1, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk. Kim Weston, juror, will be in attendance during the reception to answer questions about the exhibition.

Kim Weston has been a fine art photographer for 30 years with much of his work capturing the human form. For the past six years, Kim and his wife Gina have been conducting several workshops held at Wildcat Hill, Kim's grandfather Edward Weston's former home. Kim is a third-generation member of one of the most important and creative families in the history of photography.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the art of photography, showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers, and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art. Enjoy fine art and a cup of coffee at the f/Stop Café in the Center's new location adjacent to the Poudre River Arts Center, at 400 North College Avenue, Fort Collins, CO. Gallery hours are 10am-5pm Tuesday through Saturday. f/Stop Café hours are 7:00am-3:00pm Monday through Friday. For more information about the Center's activities, including information on workshops or forums, please see the website at www.c4fap.org or call 970-224-1010.
