The Center for Fine Art Photography presents its newest exhibition of fine art photography, All Things Horses. This exhibition is on display in the Center's gallery from September 5 – September 27, 2008.

All Things Horses presents the equestrian world through photographers' artistic interpretation. This exhibition will showcase images of working horses, wild horses, dressage, tack and anything related to the life and nature of these beautiful animals. The works of thirty-eight photographers is exhibited in the Center's gallery. The artists' and public reception will be held from 6-9 pm on Friday September 5, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk.

Christiane Slawik of Wuerzburg, Germany is the Juror for the All Things Horses exhibition. Christiane is internationally recognized for her dedication to horses, in her photography, workshops and publications. Her images are published throughout the world and frequently grace the covers of magazines, books and calendars.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the art of photography, showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers, and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art. Enjoy fine art and a cup of coffee at the f/Stop Café in the Center's new location adjacent to the Poudre River Arts Center, at 400 North College Avenue, Fort Collins, CO. Gallery hours are 10am-5pm Tuesday through Saturday. f/Stop Café hours are 7:00am-3:00pm Monday through Friday. For more information about the Center's activities, including information on workshops or forums, please see the website at www.c4fap.org or call 970-224-1010.
