

Pinhole Photography Exhibition
Press Release April 2009

Contact: Azarie Furlong 970.224.1010
Old Town, Fort Collins, Colorado, USA

To celebrate World Wide Pinhole Day, on April 26, 2009, The Center for Fine Art Photography is presenting its first Pinhole Photography Exhibition. Local artists, Valerie Burke, Micheal Butts and Mark James are exhibiting their pinhole images from April 10 – May 16, 2009. The Center is hosting a series of events, during the month of April to educate people about pinhole photography. Included in this series of events is a panel discussion with the three exhibiting artist to discuss the creative process that is unique to pinhole photography.

These events are free and open to the public while donations are accepted and appreciated.

Image: Flutter by Valerie Bruke

- Pinhole Photography Exhibition: April 10 – May 16
- Artist and public reception: May 1, 6 - 9pm
- Panel discussion with the artists: April 23, 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm
- Worldwide Pinhole Photography Day Workshop: April 26, 1:30 pm – 5:30 pm

Founded in 2004 to promote the art of photography through exhibitions and education, the Center is a nonprofit organization supported by donations, grants and memberships. The Center for Fine Art Photography currently has more than 1,200 members representing 33 countries worldwide. Although its headquarters, gallery and soon-to-open wet darkroom are in Fort Collins, Colorado, an on-line gallery gives photographers and photography enthusiasts from all over the globe an opportunity to engage with the Center. For more information about the Center', including information on workshops or forums, please see the website at www.c4fap.org or call 970-224-1010.

High Resolution images available at www.c4fap.org/pr/pinhole
###

