We are excited to have you join us and are happy to answer any questions you have about travelling to Fort Collins, Colorado!

AIR TRAVEL

Denver International Airport is the closest airport to Fort Collins. The airport is located 70 miles south of Fort Collins by Interstate. Travel time is around 75 minutes; traffic is slower during rush hour and on weekends. Denver is a hub for Southwest Airlines, which is a no-frills low-cost carrier and often has the best rates. Denver International is connected to downtown Denver Union Station by light rail. Note the famously unnerving murals while you pass through. Cheyenne Wyoming also has an airport, which is smaller and does not offer transportation options. Cab fare from Cheyenne is around $110 each way.

TRANSPORTATION TO AND FROM DENVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

You will need to arrange transportation from the airport to Fort Collins. The airport is 60 miles from Fort Collins.

Car Rental

DIA offers rentals from most major car rental companies, starting at $15/day if booked in advance. Please compare the rates online to find the best price. Keep in mind possible winter road conditions from December through April.

Bustang | <https://www.ridebustang.com/north-line>

This bus runs from Union Station in Downtown Denver to the Fort Collins downtown Transit Center, which is three blocks from the Center. Cost is $10 per ride. Reservations available online and through their convenient app. Union Station is connected by Light rail to Denver International Airport. See below for light rail information.

Denver Airport to Union Station | <https://www.denver.org/about-denver/transportation/airport-rail/>

You can ride the light rail from Denver International Airport to the downtown Denver Union Station. Union Station offers a high-end hotel, many restaurants and connecting buses to Fort Collins via the Bustang. See the link above for the current Bustang information.

IN TOWN TRANSPORTATION

Ride Share and Apps

Fort Collins has Uber and Lyft available; you can also book a taxi with the curb app or online HERE. The taxi service is slower and should be scheduled in advance.

Zipcar Car Sharing | <http://www.zipcar.com/fortcollins>

It's like having your own car but gas and insurance are free, daily and hourly rates available. This is a very convenient way to get about and the city offers a limited time $35 credit towards your first ride. All different auto types available (including 4wd) and reservations are online or via mobile.

Max Transportation | <http://www.ridetansfort.com/max>

The MAX rapid transit system runs north/south on Mason Street (parallel to and one block west of the main street, College Avenue) with stops every 2 blocks or so.

Biking

Fort Collins is very bike friendly with many paths and very wide streets with dedicated bike lanes. Many hotels and Airbnb's also offer complimentary bikes, inquire when making reservations. The City of Fort Collins offers a bike library, which you can register with and 'check out' a bike while you are here. For more information visit <http://www.fcbikelibrary.org/>.

FORT COLLINS QUICK LOOK

Located in Northern Colorado at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, Fort Collins is at 5,280 feet above sea level with a population of 148,00. The high altitude can cause issues if you are dehydrated, drink lots of water. Please be prepared for seasonal weather that changes quickly. We are sixty miles north of Denver, Colorado. Old Town is a vibrant downtown area with many good restaurants and shopping. We are known for our many craft breweries/distilleries that offer tours and our bike friendly streets. We are also located about one hour from Rocky Mountain National Park and one hour from Denver. There is seasonal rafting, boating and hiking near-by. If you have any questions about your visit, please feel free to email us at coordinator@c4fap.org.
